

JASPER STEVENSON

(262) 424-9077 | Jasper.Stevenson.273@gmail.com | 1980 Peach Blossom Ln.
Hebron, KY

Dedicated outreach professional with a research background in earth science, seeking to refine scientific translation to the public.

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Arts in Geoscience | Lawrence University 2020

- Research focus - Interglacial gravel deposition mechanisms
- Major coursework - geochemistry, mineralogy, high- and low-temperature geophysics, sedimentology and geomorphology, climate and climate change, process modelling, and research methods
- Minor - Archaeology

RELEVANT WORK EXPERIENCE

Extension Assistant, Boone County Cooperative Extension Present

- Plan, organize, and teach public educational programs for all program areas
- Foster engagement from the public with all aspects of Extension
- Ensure educational programs are accessible to everyone in Boone County

Soil Conservation Technician, Boone County Conservation 2022 - 2025

- Design and lead ecological education programs for children and adults
- Assist local landowners in accessing federal and state cost share funds for conservation initiatives
- Provide technical assistance for natural resource concerns

Field Geologist, Atlas Technical Consultants 2020 – 2021

- Perform environmental assessments and remediation consulting services for contaminated sites
- Write detailed reports of scientific findings

Teaching Assistant, Lawrence University 2019

- Lead test preparation sessions, assist with laboratory course instruction, organize scientific samples and collections.
- Assess and grade coursework

SKILLS

- Statistical Analysis
- Collaboration
- Design
- GIS Software
- Public Speaking
- Technical Writing

EXTRACURRICULARS

- Violinist (2002-present)
 - Milwaukee Youth Symphony Orchestra (2006-2015)
 - Tour in Austria and Hungary (2015)
- Lawrence University Fencing Team - Women's Épée (2015-2017)
 - 14th individual in Midwest Conference 2017
 - 2nd team in Midwest Conference Championships 2017